Product description

The 295 ml Stay Hot stacking camp cup is a practical companion for coffee, tea or espresso, whether at home, in the office or on the go. Designed for everyday convenience, it features double-wall vacuum insulation to keep drinks hot for longer, while the press-in drink-through lid allows easy sipping and helps prevent splashes during busy mornings or walks. Made from durable 18/8 stainless steel with a powder-coated finish, it is built to last and easy to clean, with a stackable design for compact storage and a range of mix-and-match colours for added style.
